

DON'T BE ALARMED —
IT'S ONLY THE NIGHT SHIFT COMING ON.

A black and white cartoon illustration depicting a scene of workplace chaos. On the left, a woman with short hair sits at a desk, looking distressed with her hand to her face. A speech bubble from her reads: "DON'T BE ALARMED — IT'S ONLY THE NIGHT SHIFT COMING ON." In the center and right, a large, diverse crowd of monstrous and bizarre creatures swarms towards her. The creatures include a multi-eyed alien-like being, a creature with a skull for a head, a man with a beard and a cross on his chest, a girl with pigtails, a small robot-like figure, and several other grotesque or comical figures. One creature has a long, segmented tail. The background shows a simple office setting with a door labeled "EXIT". The artist's signature "LFI .90" is in the bottom right corner.
